FROM YOUR PASTOR'S HEART . . . TIMOTHY TEAM -- Raising Spiritual Champions, Pt. 3

I've been reading George Barna's latest book, Raising Spiritual Champions: Nurturing Your Child's Heart, Mind and Soul. I'm convicted and convinced that we must step up our efforts as parents, grandparents and as a church family to nurture our children, intentionally, to become spiritual champions. The data on the worldview of millennials and Gen Z is startling.

According to Barna, only 1% are living as true disciples of Jesus Christ. They may claim to be Christians, but they reject basic tenants of what Jesus says makes a disciple. They need a biblical worldview, and that needs to be imparted to them by the time they reach 13.

What do we do?

1. Parents and grandparents, make sure you have a Biblical worldview. A worldview is "the intellectual, emotional, and spiritual filter you apply to every situation so that your choices and decisions reflect the ways of the Lord ... It is the way you understand life (Barna, 2023, page 9)."
2. Parents and grandparents, sign your kids up HERE for Timothy Team and do the Timothy Team studies WITH your children and grandchildren, during the week and on Wednesday evenings. We will begin, intentionally, to teach the Seven Pillars of A Biblical Worldview as they fit into our Bible lessons. Make sure your teens continue in our Heritage Youth Ministry to have these pillars reinforced.
3. Get your own copy of Raising Spiritual Champions by clicking HERE.

Learn the components of a Biblical Worldview and how to impart these to your children. It is YOUR primary responsibility, not the Church's. We come alongside you to support. But God will hold YOU accountable for the stewardship of your children's hearts and minds. It is SOOOO much more important than their academic achievements, their friendships, their athletic training or musical abilities. Jesus says in Mark 8:36, For what shall it profit a [child], if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?

With Jesus' help, we can do this. We can change the world for the children within our sphere of influence. Let's give our all for this! Children are the priority, but THE KEY is spiritually mature adults who love Jesus, know the Word, and live out and impart this Biblical Worldview to the upcoming generations. You don't have to be the teacher, but you can do your part by praying and encouraging and giving and praising!

I am pumped at what Jesus is going to do in and through you and in and through our children and youth in this coming year!

I Witness...

This Sunday morning we will be finishing up the series "Witness". However, we are not closing chapter on a topic but rather turning the page as we continue being witnesses for Jesus in a world that is desperate to know and see the truth; a truth that can only be found in Jesus. This Sunday we will briefly look at the lives of two familiar names: King Saul and King David. Both characters reveal a direction to go in life...both characters had flaws...both characters had an impact...only one sought after God's heart. As we seek to witness for the Lord, we will only be as effective as the heart that we allow God to mold in us. Join us Sunday as we explore a "spear-chucker" and a "stone-thrower" and how we can learn from their examples to be a greater impact and witness for God's kingdom in our homes, our church, our community and beyond!
